PADI eLearners can start your adventure today. Choose Lake Rawlings as your Training Center and tell us which of the Open Water Classes you would like to attend. You will attend the second weekend with the addition of the Friday prior as an academic session. This is an all day session consisting of administration and confined water. Once complete you are invited to camp with us for the weekend. On Us!

To register for eLearning see http:// www.padi.com

Training Format: Regardless of your choice of eLearning or Classroom training there will be some homework required prior to the water sessions.

Open Water eLearning where you have the flexibility to choose when and where you will complete your academic training including quizzes and your final examination online. You also get the direct phone number to our training staff for assistance as required during your eLearning.

The choice is up to you.

Open Water Workshop training with Text and DVD training you walk away with tools that you can use and review in the future. Furthermore you have the interaction with some of the best scuba instructors around and classroom camaraderie with other students. The first weekend consist of Knowledge reviews, Watermanship skills and confined water sessions 1-5. The second weekend, Sat & Sun consist of open water dives 1-4 and should leave time for a fun or adventure dive as a certified diver.
